SHE'S GOT FAITH: FEMALE RELIGIOUS IN CENTRAL OHIO

As the globe moves further in the direction of gender equality, women have assumed leadership roles in countless fields, including leaders of various faith traditions. While some religions have long embraced female leaders, others are slow to move in this direction. That is also true for places of worship in Central Ohio. What roles have women played in the past and what challenges are there in the future? Join us during Women's History Month, and soon after International Women's Day, for a discussion with several Central Ohio women on the roles they play in spreading their faith.
