A Place for Spirituality, Education, and the Arts

Our Mission

The Martin de Porres Center for ministry outreach, sponsored by the Dominican Sisters of Peace, is a place for spirituality, education, and the arts in Columbus, Ohio. Infused with hospitality, this ministry reflects the Dominican mission to preach the Gospel, share fruits of contemplation with others, and respond to the educational and spiritual needs of God's people.

Upcoming Retreats

Each season has a lesson for us. Take some time from your busy schedules as the year winds down to listen and reflect on God's path for you. Sr. Carol Ann Spencer will lead two special retreats designed to ponder the richness of God's blessings. Autumn: Season of Surrender will be featured on October 2 from 7:00-9:00pm and Advent: Season of Hope on December 4 & 11 from 10:00am-12:00pm. Why not take some time to become more aware of the power of Emmanuel's presence with you and your ability to warm the lives of others because of God's gift? Contact us to register today!

15th Anniversary & Feast Day

The annual celebration of our patron St. Martin de Porres is even more meaningful this year as we celebrate the 15th Anniversary of the Martin de Porres Center! Join us on Sunday, November 3 from 2:00-4:00pm for a celebration of St. Martin's defining spirit of compassion and inclusivity. The celebration will feature special musical selections, performed by the St. Anthony Church Multicultural Choir, dancing, refreshments, crafts, the thought-provoking art exhibit I AM A MAN, and a first look at original artwork of our modern saint. We will also look back at fifteen wonderful years of being open to all.

Who was San Martin?

Known for his compassion and service to the poor, St. Martin de Porres and his example provides our guiding spirit. St. Martin (1579-1639) was born in Lima, Peru - the illegitimate son of a Spanish nobleman and a freed black slave. He and his sister were raised in poverty until age 12, when he learned barbering and the medical arts of the day. At age 15, he began working with the Dominicans as a lay helper and eventually became a professed Lay Brother. He tended to the sick in the infirmary and was praised for his unconditional care of all of God's creation, regardless of race or social status. #belikedeporres

Now on Display..

Our upcoming art exhibitions once again showcases the talented and diverse artists and organizations in our community. Our special summer exhibit from Accessible Expressions and VSA Ohio is a traveling art exhibit that features artists with disabilities. This exhibit will be on display through September 27. We will also honor Hispanic Heritage Month during September and October with a main hallway exhibit by Irene Perez Mora. I AM A MAN, on display from October 1-November 15, will explore what it means for men of color to maneuver in a contemporary "post-racial" society. And finally, the Art of Rosy Avoscan finishes out the year. Many thanks to these amazing artists for continually blessing our space with their talents!

Martin de Porres Prayer

As Martin's charity embraced the needy women and men of his time and even the animals of the field, help us to be instruments of love and change in our world. Strengthen our efforts for peace and justice, and let us recognize your Son in the face of the poor.
 Grant us Martin's generous heart and keep us faithful to you. Amen
